Bernhardt Wealth Management Purchases A New Building in Tysons Corner

Washington, DC – October 1, 2013 – Bernhardt Wealth Management, an independent wealth management and investment advisory firm helping clients achieve financial goals, has purchased and relocated to a new office building in the Tysons Corner area. The firm’s employees now occupy space on the second floor of the building located at 7601 Lewinsville Road.

The recent purchase is in keeping with the firm’s long-term financial planning and investment philosophy – to focus on what you can control rather than on what you can’t.

“We may not be able to control what the stock market will do from day to day, or over the next few years, but we can control our overhead costs by purchasing a building and avoid inevitable rent increases,” explained Gordon Bernhardt, president and CEO of Bernhardt Wealth Management. “It just made sense for us to move forward with the purchase of our own building and start paying ourselves over the long-term.”

According to Bernhardt, Tysons Corner is a rapidly growing development where they had an opportunity to purchase at a time when the prices and interest rates were still relatively low. While there are certain tax advantages for commercial real estate owners, the firm’s purchase was spurred more by a desire to keep their costs down and in turn keep their client’s fees down.

“We are always looks for ways to add more value without increasing fees,” said Bernhardt. “We look forward to hosting our clients in our lovely new space.”

An open house for the firm’s family, friends and clients is planned for November 7.
